

UNDERSTANDING EACH OTHER: Arab and Muslim Americans After 9/11

Presenter Sebastian Maisel, Ph.D., Professor of Arabic and Middle East Studies at Grand Valley State University will discuss topics related to Arab and Muslim Americans including:

- Contributions of Arab and Muslim Americans
- Dispelling the myths about Arab and Muslim Americans
- Controversial Issues facing Arab and Muslim Americans

All Kent County employees are invited to attend and participate in this educational discussion.

Henn'a - body art for celebrations

WHEN : Wednesday, August 31, 2011
WHERE: Kent County Courthouse
Employee Conference Center - 5th Floor
TIME: 12:00 P.M. - 1:15 P.M.

Bring your lunch – light refreshments will be provided.

Please RSVP before August 26 by calling the Human Resources Department at 616.632.7740 or emailing cic@kentcountymi.gov. Kent County employees may also register by using the Human Resources Learning Management System (LMS).

Supervisor permission may be necessary as the program will exceed one hour. If you would like to attend this event and are in need of an accommodation, please call Human Resources before August 24.

The Cultural Insight Council's Brown Bag Luncheon Series is a cultural and professional development program held twice annually to promote cultural understanding among Kent County employees to assist with fulfilling the County's mission of effectively serving the needs of our diverse community.

"Kent County ...Where Diversity and Inclusion Matter"

Qahwah: Traditional Coffee

Debka: Arab folk dance

Hijab: Muslim Headscarf

Arabic Calligraphy: Welcome

KENT COUNTY CULTURAL INSIGHT COUNCIL'S brown bag
LUNCHEON