

In Recognition of Women's History Month

The Kent County Cultural Insight Council's Brown Bag Luncheon Series Presents:

KENT COUNTY'S WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

All Kent County employees are invited to attend this upcoming panel-style brown bag luncheon as we recognize and pay tribute to the significant achievements of women's contributions to our workforce. While women are growing in the ranks of leadership within many organizations, conversations about leadership continue to portray women leaders as the exception.

This luncheon will feature just a few of Kent County's women in leadership as they address cutting edge issues of gender and leadership:

- Helen Gutierrez, Administrator - Kent/MSU Extension Office (Support Systems & Mentors)
- Stacy McGinnis, Superintendent - Juvenile Detention Center (Progressing in Kent County)
- Sandi Parrish, Chair - Board of Commissioners (Charting the Course for the Future)
- Nadine Schut, Administrator - Prosecutor's Office (Women in Leadership)
- Michelle Young, Chief Deputy - Sheriff's Office (Women in Non-Traditional Roles)

Discussion moderated by Linda Likely, Director - Housing & Community Development

When: Thursday, March 10, 2011
Where: Kent County Courthouse
Employee Conference Center – 5th Floor
Time: 12:00 PM - 1:15 PM
