

THE KENT COUNTY CULTURAL INSIGHT COUNCIL'S BROWN BAG LUNCHEON SERIES PRESENTS:

THE DUTCH OF WESTERN MICHIGAN

In November 1991, the U.S. Congress and President Bush proclaimed November 16 as Dutch-American Heritage Day. In recognition of this observance and Kent County's rich Dutch culture, all Kent County employees are invited to attend this upcoming brown bag luncheon, presented by Ottawa County Administrator Alan G. Vanderberg. Please join us for this informative discussion as Mr. Vanderberg will provide a brief summary of Dutch history and will share his viewpoints and perspectives on:

- Dutch contributions to language and thought
- Dutch settlement patterns in Western Michigan
- Curiosities of the "Michi-Dutch"

Wednesday, November 14
Kent County Courthouse
Employee Conference Center - 5th Floor
